Kat Akin
Web Designer

Austin, TX

i'm a multidisciplinary designer seeking a new employment opportunity to continue growing my creative skillset.

Jan 2019 -Present

Web Designer, Domain.com
Worked on a brand refresh to update existing web pages, helped cultivate and continue the new brand style and created a component library for the Domain brand.

Jan 2017 -Present

Web Designer, HostGator
Since 2017, I have worked on the front of site team to create and develop new website designs and brand assets under demanding deadlines.

May 2015 - Jan 2019

Graphic Designer, A Small Orange
Created email and front of site campaigns for sales, developed a new illustration style, and worked with an agile team. Solved design problems while owning all facets of design (strategy, art direction).
